Departmental Advising Information

Departmental advising information is available on the AE website at <http://www.ae.uiuc.edu/academics/undergrad/advising.html>. It explains restrictions on Free Electives, requirements in Humanities and Social Science and Cultural Studies and how courses can be chosen to satisfy multiple requirements, when Credit/No Credit is not allowed, how to satisfy the foreign language requirement, plus much more.

Sigma Gamma Tau (SGT) Peer Advising

Monday, October 29 through Friday, November 9, Room 220 Talbot Lab, days and times:

Monday: 1:00-2:00, 3:00-6:00

Tuesday: 2:00-5:00

Wednesday: 1:00-2:00, 4:00-6:00

Thursday: 2:00-3:00, 4:00-6:00

SGT is having peer advising for class selection. Get advice from upperclassmen and graduate students who have completed most of the curriculum. Let them help you find a non-western or a behavioral science while getting insight on the classes that you'll be taking next semester.

AE 100 – High Altitude Ballooning

12:00-12:50 on Wednesdays

Prof. Coverstone will be teaching AE 100 in the Spring (CRN 48322) for 1 hour. The course is an introductory design course with an emphasis on High Altitude Ballooning. Only one hour of AE 100 will count toward graduation.

WIA Bowling

Tuesday, October 30th 8:00 pm-10:30 pm, Illini Union Rec Room

Come join us in a game of bowling, or just come to socialize and eat pizza! Cost will be $1.00 for shoes/food. Further questions, contact Christina McQuirk at mcquirk2@uiuc.edu.

Study-Abroad Open House

Thursday, Nov. 1, 4:00-6:00 p.m., 101 International Studies Building (on Fifth between Daniel and Chalmers)

Learn about study-abroad opportunities in Australia, New Zealand, the United Kingdom and Ireland; semester, year and summer programs. Talk to returnees Aussies and Brits.

Representatives from University of Bristol and third-party provider Arcadia Center for Education Abroad will be in attendance. Drop in when you can. <https://www.studyabroad.uiuc.edu>
